

A Letter to My Mom

To Mom,

Your presence here on earth was indeed a blessing from God, the comfort of your embrace, the warmth of your smile, the loving nature of your being has filled me with so much happiness.

You will be missed more than words can ever describe. I love you with all that I am and more. Mom you are and always will be the soul purpose in my life. You are my Angel and my shining star. To thine own self be true.
I love you Mom.

A Light From Our Family

*A light from our family is gone
A voice we loved is stilled
A place is vacant in the home
Which never can be filled*

*We have to mourn the loss of one
We would've loved to keep
But God who surely loved her best
He is finally made her sleep*

*After a lifetime of her love and joy
And laughter to fill our ears
God leaves these wondrous memories
To help us through our tears.*

Acknowledgements

The family acknowledges with sincere appreciation the many kind deeds and comforting expressions of sympathy and extended to them in their hour of sorrow. May God bless each of you.

*Respectfully Submitted,
The Family*

Life Reflections

Marjorie Ann Jackson Crawford departed this life on Sunday, March 18, 2012 at Christ Hospital in Jersey City, New Jersey. She was the youngest daughter of the late Edna Ford and the late Jesse Jackson.

“Margie”, as she was fondly known, was born in Jersey City Margaret Haque on April 24, 1943. She attended P.S. #22 School and Lincoln High School. Margie was an avid reader and loved a good mystery and horror films.

Margie was united in wedlock to her beloved William “Billy” Crawford in 1959. Although the marriage didn’t last long, they remained friends over the years.

Margie was employed in several places over the years. She worked as a Secretary Medical Assistant and Teachers Aide. In her youth Margie was a member of Calvary C.M.E. Church in Jersey City, where her family attended.

Margie was preceded in death by her parents and older sister Catherine Solomon.

Margie leaves to cherish her memory: one son, Sean Duncan Crawford; two sisters, Betty Solomon Searvance of Bowie, Maryland and Louise Solomon Smith of Jersey City, NJ; three granddaughters, Ashley Crawford, Tiffany Wilson, Breonna Terry; and grandson, Jahquan Porter; long time loving companion, Charles Duncan; special cousin, Richard Ford, Jr; and a host of family members; a special friend and care giver Valerie Matthews and her beloved Shih-Tzu Bravo.
