Obituary

Ernestine Glover, daughter of the late Ralph and Pearl Glover, was born November 10, 1948 in Brooklyn, New York. She departed this life on March 20, 2012.

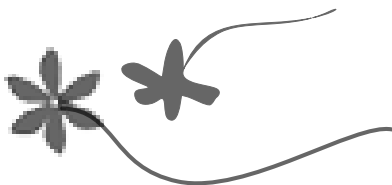

Ernestine was raised in The House of Prayer Holiness Church and accepted the Lord at an early age in her life. She attended Maxwell High School in Brooklyn. Thereafter, she began working for New York City Sanitation Department until she retired.

Ernestine had a most gracious and eloquent spirit. She had a great love for her fellow man, family, friends and neighbors. Ernestine's mission in life was to provide for and care for her family, even when she herself did without. She made all sacrifices and never complained. There was always an encouraging word on her lips for everyone she met. Even though at times, you wouldn't like the way it came out.

We will all surely miss her.

Ernestine leaves to mourn: Evander Glover (sister), David Glover (brother) and his wife, Hazel Ann Glover, Bernard Glover (brother). She also leaves to mourn a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, god daughter and other family members and friends.

Life After Death

Life after death is a mystery to us all what's next after that never ending fall.

I say It's never ending because we don't know what's next

It seems as though I'm repeating myself but such is life.

*People come into our lives from all walks of life
some husbands and some our wives.*

Let's bring it a little closer.

God gives us brother and sister, father and mothers;

But there's a given time when we are removed from each other and we have no say so in the matter.

Those that are left to deal with the pain after

Someone's death which was close to us:

We have to come to grips of moving on, staying strong and remembering right from wrong, keep a song in your heart and keep praying for those that are yet to depart .

And knowing that life is a mystery.

We are often asked to believe in things that we can't see.

*It's called having faith. If more of us had that;
fewer of us would have to look for facts knowing that God is in control of all things* that make us sad and the thing that make your heart sing.

That's why it's good to know there is life after death.

Always remember this until it's time for everyone of us to take our rest
