Obituary

Doris Deloris Williams Montgomery departed this life on Thursday, March 22, 2012 at University Medical and Dental Hospital of New Jersey at the age of sixty. She was born on January 10, 1952 to Sarah G. Howard-Williams and the late Isaiah Williams, Sr. Doris was one of ten children.

Doris was raised in Blakely, Georgia. There is where she spent all of her childhood until her family moved to Newark, New Jersey in 1969. The Washington High School's Class of 1970 in Blakely, Georgia, always looked at her as one of their own graduating classmates, even though she graduated from West Side High School in Newark, New Jersey.

In 1974, Doris graduated from the University of Massachusetts with a B.A. in Elementary Education. She later went on to receive two Master's degrees from Jersey City University.

Doris started her teaching career in the Newark Public School System in 1974. She later transferred to the Jersey City Public School System. She retired in 1999 due to health reasons. Doris found so much joy in teaching and she touched so many lives through her work.

She briefly came out of retirement to assist with several day care centers as a consultant.

In 1975, Doris was baptized as a faithful servant, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. Doris took her baptism very serious and remained a faithful servant of Jehovah's to the end.

June 17, 1978, Doris married Billy R. Montgomery at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses on Hoffman Blvd. in East Orange, New Jersey and from this union three children were born, Alaya, Breeanca and Amber Montgomery.

Doris found great joy in spending time with her grandchildren, whom she loved dearly. They affectionately referred to her as G-Ma and Ya-Ya.

She was preceded in death by two of her children, Alaya and Breeanca Montgomery; sister, Rhodia Stafford; three brothers, Timothy Williams, Gregory Williams and Percy Williams; brothers-in-law, Bobby R. Montgomery and Ora C. Henderson.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory: husband, Billy R. Montgomery; daughter, Amber L. Montgomery; step-daughter, Aisha Alston; two grandchildren, Alaya B. Montgomery and Avien L. Abney; mother, Sarah G. Williams; sisters, Evelyn Henderson, Pearlene (Pearl) Parker and Willodean (Dean) Williams; two brothers, Moses (Sonny) Williams and Isaiah (Junior) Williams; three aunts, Alice, Effie and Christine; one uncle, Jimmy Henley; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends who will also miss her dearly.

He Will Call

Job 14:13-15

Life, like a mist, appears for just a day, then disappears tomorrow. All that we are can quickly fade away, replaced with tears and sorrow. If a man should die, can he live again? Hear the promise God has made:

He will call the dead will answer. They shall live at His command for He will have a longing for the work of His own hand. So have faith and to not wonder, for our God can make us stand. And we shall live forever, as the work of His own hand.

Friends of our God, though they pass away, will never be forsaken. All those asleep who in God's memory stay, from death He will waken. Then we'll come to see all that life can be: Paradise eternally.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts,

We Thank You, Whatever the part.
