Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder why I so calmly
Trode the valley of the shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.*

*And He came Himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's Will.*

*There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth -
You shall rest in Jesus' land.*

*When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home:
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!*

Geraldine Brown

March 12, 1955 - March 19, 2012

Geraldine Robinson Brown affectionately called “Lencie”, the daughter of the late Ford Robinson and Anne Ruth Robinson. Geraldine was born on March 12, 1955 in Passaic, NJ. Geraldine was educated in the Passaic Public School system.

On November 23, 1976 she was united in marriage to Bobby Lee Brown, to that union four children were born.

God blessed our lives with Lencie life. She was sweet, kind, soft spoken, loving, caring and always willing to help others and most of all she loved the Lord.

Later in life Lencie and her family relocated South. She became a member of Consuming Fire Christian Center in Cornelius, NC her church family loved her.

Geraldine entered into eternal rest on Monday, March 19, 2012 at home. She has gone home to join her parents, her brother, Michael Robinson and her daughter, Sedeka Brown.

Geraldine leaves to cherish fond memories: her loving husband, Bobby; her devoted children, Sarah, Shanequa and Joshua; four grandchildren, Maya, Ahmaad, Saddiq and Nahiem; her loving brother, Ford Robinson; four godchildren, Taliah Dye, Ronald Clyburn, Rinalid Covington and Rebecca Elam and William Robinson who was just like a son to her; one devoted aunt, Gwen; four uncles, Wayne, Ford, Cleveland and George; loving adopted sisters, Sha’Ron Dye, Beatrice Jeffries, Renae Casado; one adopted brother, Dewayne Dye; and also a host of loving nieces, nephews, in-laws, cousins and devoted friends.

Ford Robinson

September 3, 1951 - March 26, 2012

Ford Robinson, affectionately called “Stevie”, was the eldest son of the late Ford and Annie Ruth Robinson. Ford was born September 3rd, 1951 in Passaic, New Jersey and was educated in the Passaic School system.

Ford was an independent, hard working, considerate and generous man. He loved his family and friends dearly. No matter what mood he was in, he always took time to put others first. He loved to listen to jazz music and poetry. You would often hear him telling childhood stories of him and his siblings and the mischief they caused growing up, bringing smiles and chuckles to the faces of those he told.

Later on in life, Ford rediscovered the joy of loving Christ and became a member of Grace Bible Class, Passaic, NJ and was ministered to by Rev. Bernard Durham.

Ford entered into eternal rest on Monday, March 26th, 2012 at Select Specialty Hospital, Rochelle Park, NJ. He has gone home to join his parents, his brother, Micheal Robinson, his sister, Geraldine Robinson-Brown, his late wives, Lena Halloway Robinson and Noreen Harris, and his niece, Sedeka T. Brown.

Ford leaves to cherish fond memories: his sons, Steven J. Robinson and Alcherik Halloway; his daughters, Tawanna Halloway and Brae Harris; his nieces, Sarah and Shanequa Brown; nephew, Joshua Brown; best friend, Gerald Chambers; also a host of aunts, uncles, grandchildren, cousins and devoted friends. Ford will truly be missed by all.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
