Obituary

Christine Williams, daughter of the late Thad and Blanche Battle White, was born on March 30, 1939 in Tarboro, North Carolina. She departed this life on Wednesday, March 28, 2012 at St. Michael's Medical Center in Newark, New Jersey .

She attended school in Edgecombe County and early in her adulthood moved to Newark, New Jersey where she lived and worked for over forty years.

She was united in marriage to Robert Lee Williams on February 13, 1960.

Having no biological children, she poured out her love on her nieces and nephews.

Christine accepted the Lord at a young age. While living in New Jersey she was a member of the Solid Rock Baptist Church and Heavenly Vision Baptist Church. Christine loved the Lord and was happy to serve Him.

She leaves to cherish her memory: a husband, Robert Lee Williams; two sisters, Mamie White of Newark, New Jersey and Barbara Feaster (James) of Red Oak, North Carolina; two brothers, Thad "Sugar" and Moses White (Yvette) of Newark, New Jersey; one sister-in-law, Elaine White; two special children, Brad and Zalisa; and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

She was predeceased by a sister, Callie; and two brothers, Wayne and Richard.

Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep,
but we shall all be changed.

In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet.
For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

For this corruptible must put on incorruption,
and this mortal must put on immortality,
then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written:

“Death is swallowed up in victory.”

“O Death, where is your sting?”

“O Hades, where is your victory?”

1 Corinthians 15:51-55 NKJV
