Obituary

Reginald Parker (Reggie) was born in Brooklyn, New York on November 16, 1956 to the late Abraham and Esther Parker.

He went home to be with the Lord on April 3, 2012.

He was educated through the New York School System, he also attended Queensboro College. Reggie went on to serve six years in the U.S. Navy. He worked for the Long Island Railroad for seventeen years.

Reggie met and married the love of his life, Geneva Browne, on September 2, 2004.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife of eight years, Geneva Parker; three step-children, Robert Pearson, Marie Pearson and Henry Pearson; one grandson, Sherman Pearson; two brothers, Wayne Parker and Mark Parker; two sisters, Carol Hagood and Gloriya Parker; one sister-in-law, Jamlese (Kelly) Parker; one brother-in-law, Felix Hagood, Jr; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. He will truly be missed by one and all.

Lonely Is The Home Without Him

*Lonely is the home without him
Life to us is not the same;
All the world would be like Heaven,
If we could have him back again.
What he suffered he told few,
He did not deserve what he went through.
Two willing hands are sleeping,
Resting in God's Will.
Our lips cannot speak how we loved him,
Our hearts know not what to say,
But only God knows how we miss him
In our home that is lonely today.
Our family chain is broken,
Nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one
The links shall join again*
