Obituary

On Friday, April 6, 2012, our Lord and Savior opened up the flood gates of Heaven to welcome our beloved Allen Lashea Coltrain, also known as “Cory” home. He was called home from labor to rest after a long battle of sickle cell anemia.

“Cory” was born on August 23, 1977 in St. Lukes Hospital in New York City. He was the second of three children born to the late Denise Coltrain Myers and Allen Myers. He attended Adlai E. Stevenson High School and later became shift leader at T.G.I.F in Times Square. His biggest passion and joy of his life were his children. He also had an enormous place in his heart for his father, siblings, nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.

“Cory” leaves behind to cherish fond memories: his father, Allen Myers of Bronx, NY; grandmother, Alberta Daniels of SC; his son, Quahmel Coltrain; daughter, Alanaye Coltrain and step-daughter, Aaliyah Colon all of New York, NY; brothers, Aaron Coltrain and Amel Myers of Bronx, NY; sisters, Aisha Scott of Stroudsburg, PA and Michelle Myers of Bronx, NY; nieces, Tafiayah, Chastity, Violet and Nuwani; nephews, Shea and Wahquel; aunts, Regina Jones and Faith Simmons; uncles, Vernon, Al, Marty and Delmas Coltrain, Michael and Noel Pollard, Alvin, Andre and Angelo Daniels; and a host of great aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

A head full of memories
A heart full of love
A life full of smiles
And now you're up above
The advice that you gave me
The love you had to give Made people adore you during the short life you lived A wonderful uncle and a great dad when you made your departure we were all deeply sad your morning rants on facebook playing 2K on your bed walking in from work with your beats on bopping your head but it feels so unreal.
are you really gone?
you have no idea how my heart feels but you're in a better place now.
