Obituary

Tramell Daquan Harrison was born on June 15, 1991 to Leonard and Sharnette Harrison in Teaneck, NJ.

He attended primary and secondary schools in the community of Englewood and graduated from Dwight Morrow High School in Englewood, New Jersey in 2009.

As an employee of Uoriki Fresh, Tramell took great pride in his work. He was well respected and valued for his hard work and dedication by his employer.

Tramell was handsome and lovable with a winning personality. He loved to dance, laugh and joke around with his “BRO’s” as he would call them. He loved his friends dearly. They will never forget what a true and loyal friend he was in their lives.

Family was extremely important to him. The birth of his daughter Janiyah on November 7, 2008 brought him a tremendous amount of joy and happiness. Tramell loved and cherished her; she was his pride and joy. His memory will live on through her forever.

Tramell loved his brothers, Tyriek and Trevaun. They were near and dear to his heart. He was very proud and supportive of their accomplishments. He always encouraged them to do and to be the best at everything they did. In turn, they have a love and a fondness for their older brother that will always remain in their hearts.

His parents were so proud of his accomplishments and the wonderful young man he grew to be. Their lives were blessed and greatly enriched with happiness and joy because of him.

He is survived by: his parents, Leonard and Sharnette Harrison; daughter, Janiyah Harrison; brothers, Tyriek and Trevaun Harrison; grandfathers, James Harrison Sr. and Robert Davis Sr.; grandmother, Dethonia Harrison. Preceded in death by: grandmother, Sharon Davis; uncles, Robert Davis Jr., James Harrison Jr. and Kadeem Davis; aunts, Edna Heath and Kadejah Davis; along with a host of great aunts, great uncles, cousins and other relatives and friends.

*George Washington Memorial Park Cemetery
Paramus, New Jersey*

To our beloved son, words cannot express how much we will miss you. We thank God every day that he chose us to be your parents. Our hearts are heavy with sadness because we will never get to feel the warmth of your smile or hear the sound of your "loud" voice.

Tramell, we will forever be proud because you brought us so much joy.

Although you are physically gone, your spirit will forever live.

As we did in life, we will continue to love honor and cherish you.

We vow to love Janiyah just as you did UNCONDITIONALLY. We vow to protect and love your brothers just as you did.

We vow to keep your memory alive in everything we do. Tramell, it warms our hearts to know that so many people love you just as we do.

Forever in our hearts until we meet again our darling son Tramell.

Your Loving Parents,
Mommy and Daddy
