"My Sweetheart Lou" - The Love of my life - my better half: the life we spent together was exactly what God had in mind when he joined us together.

I miss you so much already;
I will always love you. Forever!!
~ Sharon

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped his arms around you and whispered,
"Come to me."

With tearful eyes we watched you
and saw you pass away
And although we love you dearly,
we could not make you stay.

A Golden heart stopped beating, when He gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful; he only takes the best.

Acknowledgements

Trusting God in all things, the family of Louis James Harriott would like to express their deepest gratitude and appreciation to all. We are thankful for all the cards, flowers, prayers, kind words, hugs, inspirations, love and thoughtful gestures that you have all bestowed on us during this time of bereavement. We pray that you will serve God to see Brother Lou in "the light" someday. We pray that the Lord will forever bless and keep you always.

Life Reflections

On January 2, 1950, the late Mervis and Ivan Harriott gave birth to their second bouncing baby boy, Louis James Harriott, in the cool hills of Manchester, Jamaica West Indies. Louis grew up in Manchester until the tender age of seventeen, then left home to work in Old Harbour.

Once there he made a great number of friends and became a Christian at Refuge Temple. He was nicknamed 'Starky' after the Starkland bus where he was a conductor. That name stuck even though he later found other employment at Jamaica Broilers. He stayed in Old Harbour for many years thereafter not just because of work but mainly because a young lady named Sharon Henry tickled his fancy. He followed her home one evening and asked her parents for her hand in marriage. Having her parents' approval, he followed her to Church of God of Prophecy (COGOP) church in Old Harbour and took membership. Brother Louis was a man who followed the right protocols at all times. Mr. and Mrs. Henry gave him the right to marry their daughter so he got down to business and married Sharon on August 29, 1981 in Old Harbour St. Catherine.

He later migrated to Queens, NY and transferred his membership to COGOP in South Ozone Park. His wife and his two eldest children later joined him. He gave full service to God and drove the church bus for twenty-seven years, diligently and faithfully picking up members for services and visits to other conventions and other activities.

Louis secured employment at Jamaica Hospital and worked there up to his passing. There he made no distinction between doctor, nurses, administrators, security, etc. all people were either his "brethren" or his "sistren".

No stranger to "The Word", Brother Louis loved to quote scripture, make biblical references while spreading the gospel to anyone he encountered. He was loved by all who encountered him regardless of where. He was a hardworking, sincere, dedicated and loving husband, father, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin and brethren to all.

Brother Louis went home to glory on April 24, 2012 leaving to cherish his memory: wife, Sharon; children, Damion, Adrian, Dwayne, Amanda, Travis; siblings, Walter (Omelda), Winston (Polyonia), Thelma, Patricia (David), Glenroy (Rhona), Pauline, Jennifer and Clayton; aunt and uncle, Enid and Ralph; nieces and nephews, Carlos, Edward, Mandalee, Tanya, Kimberly, Taneel, Melissa, Jamillah, Tristan, Natalie, Kayla, Nicole, Anntonette, Joshua, Bernnadette, Mandisa, Shukari, Paul, Tiffany and Donte; and a whole host of other relatives, friends, sistren and brethren. Brother Louis' soul and spirit is resting in peace with God.
