Reflections of Life

Curtis Lee Johnson was born November 1, 1942 in Camden, South Carolina to the late John Johnson and Rosalie (Miller) Johnson, and resided in Paterson, NJ most of his life before relocating to Liberty, NY over twenty years ago.

Curtis was educated in the Camden School System, and was employed as a Machinist for IPC Inc. of Liberty, NY for more than twenty years.

Curtis was very pleasant and quiet. He loved watching Channel 13, and listening to classical music. He also enjoyed fishing and social events. He enjoyed discussing politics and financial matters.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Shirley (Miller) Johnson; his parents, John and Rosalie Johnson, and his brother, Eddie "Mad Dog" Johnson.

He entered eternal rest on Monday, April 30, 2012 at the Catskills Regional Medical Center in Monticello, NY.

He leaves to cherish fond memories: his devoted daughters, Roselyn Johnson and Chantrice Johnson; his grandchildren, John Johnson, Travon Johnson, and Shadeera Hunter; his sister, Mary Green; his brother, Johnny Green; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

To Those I Love

*To those I love and those that love me,
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone
So grieve for a while for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."*
