

Carry On My Children

*Carry on my children And do not weep.
For today is not the end But instead the beginning.
Carry on my children You must be strong
For I am home with the Lord And I am free from all that ails me.
Carry on my children And keep my memory alive
Remember our laughter And all the joys we shared.
So until we meet again Carry on my dear children
For one day we will all be free.*

A MOTHER'S LOVE

For as long as we can remember you have been by our side. To give us love, to give us happiness, to give us support, to give us confidence, to give us help. For as long as we can remember you have always been the person we looked up to. So strong, so sensitive, so pretty. For as long as we can remember you have always provided stability within our family. Full of laughter, full of tears, full of love.

For as long as we can remember and up to the day God came for you, you continued making tough decisions, along with assisting your children with the most difficult choices a child could ever make you were everything a mother should be. So much of what we become is because of you and we want you to know that we appreciate all you've done for us and all you will continue to do in spirit. We won't say good bye mom, we'll say see you later. We thank you and love you more than words can ever express. We love you mom.

Your Children,
Brenda Pollard, Jonathan Pollard, Alvin Pollard Sr.
