Life Reflections

Jamill Al-Deen Ellis was born on September 8, 1986 in Newark, New Jersey son of Jason Clemons and the late Laynette Ellis. Jamill was raised by his siblings.

He was educated at Essex County Academy in Newark, New Jersey where he received his High School diploma. He had dreams of going to culinary arts school and becoming a chef.

Jamill was a calm spirit with a lovable nature that deemed him the "Teddy Bear" of the family. He saved a large portion of his heart for his nieces and nephews because to him they were his world. He had a love for cooking and would always try a homemade recipe at least once. When he would return home, everyone would ask "what did you cook Mil-Mil?" Even though he may be gone he could never be forgotten.

He departed this life on the morning of May 3, 2012 at age of twenty-five, surrounded by his loving family.

He was predeceased by his mother, Laynette Ellis.

Jamill was dearly loved and leaves to cherish his memories, his father, Jason Clemons; grandmother, Mary Jane Ellis; aunt, Irene "Tiny" Ellis; brothers: Hassan, Ali, Al-Mid, Amean, Latief, and Sadot Ellis; sisters: Melissa, Jamillah and Egypt Ellis; half-brothers: Carl and Sajada Gregory; sisters-in-law: Ciara Ellis, Lisa Baldwin, Misha Butler, Tyra Green and Lina Banks; nineteen nieces and nephews, two great nephews, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and dear friends.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see.
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things we never got to say.*

*I know how much you love me, as much as I love you.
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand.
An angel came and called my name and took me by the hand,
It seemed my place was ready – in Heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind, those things I dearly love.*

*But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye.
For all of life, I'd always thought, I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for, so much yet to do,
It seemed almost impossible, that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad.
I thought of all the love we shared, and how much fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday, just even for a while,
I'd say goodbye, then kiss you 'til I say that special smile.*

*But then I fully realized, that it could never be,
'Cause emptiness and memories, would take the place of me.
And when I thought of all those things, I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did, my heart was filled with sorrow.
But when I walked through Heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me, from his great and golden throne,*

*He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you.
Today your life on Earth is past, but here it starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow, but today will always last,
And since each day is the same day, there's no longing for the past.
But you have been so faithful, so trusting and so true,
Though there were some times you did some things you shouldn't do.*

*But you have been forgiven, and now at last you're free,
So come and take me by the hand and share my life with me."
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'll be right there – in your heart.*
