Upon moving to New Jersey with his family, Frank worked at Sherman Williams, Glidden Durkee, Xtra Supermarket and other various jobs during the course of his life.

He was a person who lived a quiet life and stayed close to his family.

Preceding him in death were three brothers: Albert Sanders, Sr., Veran Sanders and Thomas Sanders and five sisters: Marie Sanders Jones, Connie Sanders, Malissie Gibbs, Kerry Webb and Melonee Sanders.

He leaves to mourn one sister: Fairy McCray of Newark, New Jersey; three sisters-in-law: Rebecca Sanders of Vauxhall, New Jersey, Gloria Sanders of Newark, New Jersey and Beatrice Sanders of North Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews including two special great-nephews: Johnny and Jayson Washington of Vauxhall, New Jersey; great-great nieces and nephews, relatives, and dear friends.

*There comes a time for all of us
When we must say goodbye
But faith and hope and love and
Trust can never, never die.
Although the curtain falls at last
Is that cause to grieve?
The future's fairer than the past
If only we believe
And trust in god's eternal care-
So when the master calls
Let's say that life is still more fair
Although the curtain falls.*

Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave". The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you".
