Obituary

Juan C. Barr was born on April 16, 1958 to Christopher Barr and Juanita Barr. The oldest child of four children. He was born in Miami-Dade but relocated to New York City when he was fourteen years old.

Juan was educated in the Public School system in NYC. Juan would later earn a Associate degree from City College. He worked as a counselor at a drug treatment program for a brief period, and eventually began working as a construction worker with a company in lower Manhattan.

Juan leaves to mourn his loving wife, Jonnie Bennett; his daughter, Juanita Ward; his mother, Juanita Barr; his sisters, Debra V. Barr, Ursula B. Barr; one brother, who he would affectionately call “my little brother”, Andrien P. Saintune; his niece, Melanie Troisfontaines; nephew, Radian P. Saintune.

Juan C. Barr will be remembered as an intelligent, caring and independent man who had the ability to make anyone laugh. He had a smile that could light up a room. Juan loved life, his family and friends.

On May 2, 2012, God in His infinite wisdom called Juan home to eternal peace and rest. Precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of His Saints. We love you Juan, but God loves you best.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
