Obituary

A beautiful child of god, by the name of Deloris Eugenia Rose was born in Hanover, Jamaica WI on December 19, 1942 to the parents Veris and Stafford Rose in Jamaica, WI.

She has always took the role of a parent whether it be with her siblings (Dalia, Roy, Dockey) or the children of her Grand Aunt named by everyone Mommy D.

Deloris first ventured to the United States in march 1968. But before she relocated, she took several interests in shorthand writing, becoming a seamstress and also becoming a teller at a bank.

Deloris Rose was a faithful and diligent worker for Christ and at St. Lukes Hospital where she worked for over thirty years as a Ward Clerk (Unit Receptionist). Her diligent work was also seen with her love for the Lord. She became an active member of the 1st Presbyterian Church of Springfield Gardens where she was a Deacon, a member of the trustee board, the choir and the Dorcas Circle. Deloris also assisted in the Wednesday Food Program, where she participated in the bagging of foods for the community.

My mother was a quiet and humble person. But when sickness began to take place in her blossoming life, suffering and pain began to take place. It was then she passed away Saturday, May 5, 2012 at the age of sixty-nine years old. She loved many and will be tremendously missed by many. So from now on, the pain and confusion she grieved will no longer take place.

Deloris Rose leaves to cherish her memory: her only sister, Daila Rose; her two brothers, Roy and Aston Rose; her only son, Mark Braithwaite; her first granddaughter, Kelaiaah Jade Reynolds-Braithwaite (one more on the way) Kimani Deloris Elese Braithwaite; Sophia Bradford, her three children, Jessica, Chantay and Mehkay; Troy and Maxine Sampson and her children, Darryl, Demetri, Kyle, Katrina; and a whole host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

The family invites all Deloris friends to come and celebrate her life with them.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
