

I just want to say that I'm thankful for having you in my life,
 I want to say thank you,
 I want to say thank you for being in my life,
 I want to say thank you,
 And I miss you,
 And I wish you were here with me,
 And I love you for being in my life.
 I don't know what I would do if I didn't have you in my life,
 I want to say thank you,
 I love you and I miss you.

The love we have for each other will forever remain tattooed on my heart.

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
 Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
 Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
 Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
 Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Life Reflections

Robert G. Johnson was born on November 11, 1966 in Newark, NJ. He was the beloved son of Dollie K. Williams and William Floyd Williams.

On May 4, 2012, the angels was sent to peacefully carry him to his eternal home.

Robert was raised in East Orange and attended Franklin Elementary School and graduated from Clifford J. Scott High School. Through the years he affectionately became known as “Abdul Rakim Shabazz” or just plain “Rob” as so many referred to him. Everyone who came across his path was loved unconditionally and somehow ended up a family member.

Growing up in the family home on Dodd Street in “Dodd Town” was filled with great memories. There Rob was well known for working in Carol’s Pizza Parlor and Walley’s Candy Store and whenever there was a snow storm trust and believe “Rob was at your front door!” A “Hustler” he was. He was skilled in several areas of his passion; but he was a certified cook.

Rob was a kind-hearted and a generous person who enjoyed sharing jokes and making everyone laugh. His most cherished moments were when he was being a loving, caring and gentle father to his only daughter, Tamia Chatmon and grandson, Cashmere Jones.

A beloved brother, Darryl R. Johnson he also leaves to cherish his memory: a loving wife, Paula Boatwright whom he spent “All” his time with; his mother, Dollie Kate Williams; his father, William Floyd Williams; his siblings, Elgie “Al-Rod” Johnson, Hassan “Hagg”, Derrick Johnson (Cassandra) William “Billy” Williams (Kira), he is also survived by his loving and caring sister, Romona “Big Sis” Johnson (Raheem) and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews and cousins. With a very dear cousin, Felicia “Left” Patilla.
