Obituary

Ida Mae Moultrie was born on February 21, 1939 in Beaufort, South Carolina to her loving parents, the late Rebecca Jenkins and Solomon Webb. At the age of nineteen, she made her way to City of New York right in the heart of “Harlem”.

Manhattan Avenue welcomed Ida with open arms and it was there she made a home. In 1973 she met the love of her life Abraham Moultrie. Ida was very active woman in the community, she often devoted her time as a Teachers Assistant and a member of the parent Teachers Association at P.S. 180. She was also an Administrative Assistant at John Jay College.

Although, Ida had children of her own she was also a “mother” to all the neighborhood children. Apt 43 was an open “door” to everyone especially those who wanted a good home cook meal. Ida was known for her delicious southern style meals and she would prepare them for anyone. Ida also was known for her love of soul music and she would get down on any dance floor to show it!

Ida departed this life on May 6, 2012. Those left to cherish her memory: her devoted husband, Abraham Moultrie; ten children, Andrew Holmes, Lily Homes, Geraldine Homes, Leonard Holmes, Marvin Holmes, Kevin Holmes, Jacqueline Burton, Andrea Holmes, Jacob Holmes and Latoya Moultrie; step-children, Mary Jameson, Lavern Ford, Michael Moultrie, Mike Moultrie, Janice Higgins, Eugena Moultrie and Ernestine Manigault; son-in-law, Michael Burton; daughter-in-law, Michelle Holmes; grandchildren, Tasha Holly, Michael Holly, Lewaun Simon, Anthony Holly, Keith Holly, Danielle Perry, James Grant, Chemise Burton, Janay Burton, Jada Holmes and Cameron Dalmida; great-grandchildren, Damoni Williams and Dakota Santiago; brothers, Lee Webb (Louise), Ernest Fripp (Betty), Robert Fripp; sisters, Agnes Pope (Leroy), Ethel Allen and Lucille Rivers; uncles, James Jenkins, (Alfreda), Rufus Jenkins (Jamma); aunts, Rosa Manor, Betty Jenkins, Loretta Jenkins; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
