

He Needed The Quiet

He needed the quiet so God drew him aside,
Into the shadows where they could confide.
Away from the bustle where all the day long
He hurried and worried when active and strong.

He needed the quiet though at first he rebelled,
But gently, so gently, His cross he upheld,
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things.
Though weakened in body, his spirit took wings
To heights never dreamed of when active at play.
God loved me so greatly He drew him away.

He needed the quiet, no prison his bed,
But a beautiful valley of blessings instead.
A place to grow richer, in Jesus to hide.
He needed the quiet so God drew him aside.

Lonnie will be missed by his family and friends.
