

Celebrating the Life of

Barbara R. (Dixon) Hall

June 16, 1939 - May 10, 2012

Reflections of Life

Barbara Rosetta (Dixon) Hall was born on June 16, 1939 in Paterson, New Jersey to Rosalie Myers-Dixon and the late Eldridge Dixon.

Barbara received her elementary and high school education in the Paterson Public School system.

She was formerly employed by Colorite Plastics Co., Ridgefield Park, New Jersey, for over twenty years.

"Bobbie", as we fondly called her, was a very compassionate person with a heart of gold. She enjoyed planning family gatherings, cooking, sports and the news. There was nothing more important to her than time spent with her family.

Barbara departed this life on Thursday, May 10, 2012 at St. Joseph's Wayne Hospital.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Deborah Hall.

She leaves to cherish precious memories: children, Lawrence Hall Jr., Lena Hall and LeeAnn McClain (David) all of Paterson, NJ and Sabrina Hall (Charles) of Haledon, NJ; mother, Rosalie Dixon of Haledon, NJ; one sister Alberta "Toby" Jenkins of Paterson, NJ; eleven grandchildren, nineteen great grandchildren; devoted companion, Harry Mitchell; devoted friends, Alexzine Hunter, Birdie Osgood and Esther Askins; special daughter, Amy Ramsey; devoted caregivers, Tabalina Hall and April Smith; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and neighbors.

A Daughter's Promise

Every time that I smile Every time that I sigh
I think of your face And a tear escapes my eye
You were my rock and my world My inspiration and my heart But when you left me

I thought I would fall apart You were my best friend My one true confidante And that's not all you were You were also my mom I didn't want to live without you But you would have wanted me to And if there's anyone I would want to make happy That anyone is you I would have given anything to have you back But I know now that it was meant to be For you and Debbie are still watching from up there And I know you to jokers are smiling ear to ear Tell my sister she can have you to herself for now But when I come through those pearly gates Oh baby.....we're going to get down One of the million things I will miss When I get dressed and walk down the stairs
To hear "Alright now" , you look sharp!
Go ahead Brina "uh huh" then you would smile
I'll make you proud ma I'm going to fulfill your wish You're going to see me and smile That's a daughter's promise Loving you abundantly,
Your one and only Black Betty
