

Lullabies

Daddy please don't look so sad.
 Mommy please don't cry.
 I am in the arms of Jesus
 and he sings me lullabies.
 Please do not try to question God.
 don't think he is unkind.
 Don't think he sent me to you and that he changed his mind.
 You see, I am special and I'm needed up above.
 I'm the special child you gave him
 the product of your love.
 I'll always be there with you.
 So watch the sky at night.
 Find the brightest star that's gleaming.
 That's my halo's brilliant light.
 So Daddy please don't look so sad.
 Mommy please don't cry.
 I am in the arms of Jesus.
 And he sings me lullabies.

My Little Angel

You've just walked on ahead of me and I've got to understand
 You must release the ones you love And let go of their hand
 I try and cope the best I can But I'm missing you so much
 If I could only see you and once more feel your touch
 Yes, you've just walked on ahead of me Don't worry I'll be fine
 But now, and then I swear I feel your hand slip into mine.

Life Reflections

Ricardo Yves Casseus, Jr. was escorted into this world created by God on December 1st, 2009 to Courtney C. Jackson and Ricardo Y. Casseus, Sr. at the Jersey City Medical Center, Jersey City, NJ.

Affectionately known to his family as "Baby Cardo" or "RJ", came into this world a feisty warrior determined to win and thrive with the hopes of his family that he would win his battle and eventually come to play with his siblings, protect his mother and play ball with his father.

His eyes were bright and his body strong. And with the help of an amazing skilled medical team of doctors, nurses and therapists, we were determined to have Baby Cardo come home to do these things.

But unfortunately, our Lord and Savior who had been guiding his foot steps, saw that it was time for Baby Cardo to be escorted by his angels from this physical world for the spiritual world on May 8th, 2012.

He leaves to mourn in addition to his parents: his maternal grandparents, Kimberly Jackson and John M. Johnson, Jr.; paternal grandparents, Yves Casseus and Marie Emilien; great grandmother Macleuse Pierre; his siblings one sister and two brothers, Radey Anna, twin brother, Radevon and Radejudn Riverd; uncles, Alex Moody, Jamere Jackson, Keith Davis, Drish Johnson, Pierre Casseus, Karl Casseus and Jade Casseus; and a host of other relatives.

God's Little Angel

God needed an angel in Heaven so stand at the Savior's feet
 His choice must be the rarest, a lily pure and sweet
 He gazed upon the mighty throng, then stopped and picked the best
 Our child was His chosen one with Jesus he's now at rest.
