Obituary

Once upon a time, in a loving Harlem home, a baby girl was born. Georgette Evelyn Haynes, named after her Dad, George. He and her mom, Isabella were full of joy, as this was a special child. Georgette, was also known as “Jet”, and Aunt J. She was the second of four children, Patricia Innis, Norman Rochester (both deceased) and Rosalie Gadsden Fulgram.

As a young woman, she received training as a Junior Elk, and proudly served as a Drum Major. Her spiritual life was strong and sincere as evidenced by her Baptist faith, participation in her daily Prayer Circle for many, many years and by the way she treated others. She attended Elementary School P.S. 136, Yorkville High School and later took college credits and certification in Medical Terminology. She also served a stint as a Block Watcher for the NYPD.

She married early in life, most significantly to Corby Hernando and considered her nieces, nephews, grand and great grands her surrogate children.

Georgette spent her early career at Morrisania Hospital, and retired with distinction from Jacobi Medical Center after thirty years. She served as a most efficient Medical Unit Secretary, and was beloved by all. Her Gala Retirement Party took place at Marina Del Rey on October 25, 1990.

Aunt J was known by some of us as the “charity queen”. Her passion was helping young children with cancer. She enjoyed reading, music and collecting dolls from all over the world. She was a confidant to many. An independent voter, seeing Barack Obama take office as the first African-American President gave her great pride and joy.

Aunt Jet touched many lives and will truly be missed. She leaves to mourn and cherish her memory: sister, Rosalie; niece, Isabella; nephew, Norman; grand-nephew, Marc; grand-niece, Kelly; great grands, Jared and Kendall; nephews, Clarence and Demian Keith; and a host of cousins, special friends and colleagues, some of whom she kept in close contact for many years.

Right now, she is playing with the Angels.

Asleep

*I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep,
So there's no reason for you to weep;
This a debt we all must pay,
You will see me again someday;
I've endured pain and sometimes sorrow,
Now I don't have to worry about tomorrow.
But life for you must go on,
You must not worry because I'm gone.
You stood beside me all the way,
When I was down you knew what to say...
You always told me "get some rest"
Let me sleep now, I've done my best.
So please let me rest in peace,
The tears you're shedding soon will cease
You'll soon realize this was meant to be
I thank God because He came for me.*

- Emily Dickinson
