Obituary

Joseph William Browne, Jr., was born to the late Joseph William Browne, Sr. (predeceased) and Gloria D. Epps on September 3, 1966. Joe accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior at a very young age at Greater Central Baptist Church. He later joined the First Corinthian Baptist Church (FCBC) family in 2010. He was very fond of everyone that he came in contact with at FCBC because they accepted him immediately as family. He was educated in the New York City Public School System and attended and graduated from SUNY Old Westbury College where he majored in Journalism. Joe worked at Magnacare for fifteen years until his death.

Joe met Olivia Christmas Eve of 1994 and November of 1996 they were married. They were blessed with a son, Joseph E. Browne. He was very fond of his son and he was always honored to have Olivia as his wife. He also was honored to have them both in his life.

Joe leaves to cherish his memory: wife, Olivia; son, Joseph; mother, Gloria; mother-in-law, Hattie; brother-in-law, Jack; sister-in-law, Cheryl; cousins, Martin, Isaac, Vivian, Josephine, Kwabena and Aisha; godchildren, Robert, Tyrelle, Brandon, Tariq, Tarel, Joseph, Eugene, Jr. and Milan; and a host of other relatives and friends.

My son Joseph, I always told you whenever we talked, that you are and always have been a sense of pride to me. Your life which ended far too soon, was lived with dignity and even in your death, which shreds my heart, I can only feel pride that I got to be a mother to such a wonderful human being. You are forever in my heart and I will always love you and miss you. It's just so terribly unfair and unfortunate, that your son Joseph Elliot will not grow up to witness how genuine and non generic his father was. We will strive to instill in him the values that you lived by and to keep your legacy alive. You are forever in my soul.

All my love, Ma

Daddy, I feel very sad because you are gone.

I will miss you very much.

I laughed when you said silly things to me
and this always put a smile on my face and yours as well.
I will always love you daddy and now you have my back.

Love, your Son.

Love is something special and that is what we had. Our vows that were said meant a lot to us. We took it to heart and lived by it. We made a promise to each other with the presence of God knowing that putting God first and foremost was the most important thing in our lives. We knew that we were perfect but compromise was the key word. We had a lot in common and that was very rare for couples. You always made me laugh with the silliest things. It hurts so bad that you are gone but you will be with me in spirit. I now have another angel around me.

I truly married my best friend.

Love, your Wife.
