Obituary

Eugene Henry Michael was born September 14, 1931 in New York City, New York. He was the son of the late Eugene and Edith Michael.

Eugene and his sister Ruth were raised in Manhattan, by their aunt and uncle, Alfred and Jenny Jones. He attended Fenimore Cooper High School.

Eugene loved traveling, skiing, ice skating, fine arts and cooking. Gene and Ruth often had cooking competitions to see which one of them could make the best eggnog or turkey. He loved opera and often could be seen at the Metropolitan Opera House on opening nights. His favorite opera was La Boheme.

After thirty-five years of service, Eugene retired from the New York Public Library.

Those left behind to mourn his passing and cherish his memory are: his sister, Ruth Michael Davenport; his niece and nephews, Tracie Davenport-Hill, and Michael and Wayne Davenport; six grandnephews Kalani, William, Jordan, Quynnton, Anthony, and Joshua and two grandnieces Natasha Hill and Lanihuli Romanski; he is also survived by his great grandniece Mylie Romanski. His memory will also be treasured by a host of other relatives and friends.
