Obituary

Harry Joe-Ronnie “Fleet” Robinson departed this earthly life Sunday, June 3, 2012 at p.m. at Wayne Memorial Hospital in Goldsboro, NC.

Harry was born June 3, 1954, the second of ten children blessed to the union of the late Willie James Robinson, Sr and Fennie Mary Vann Robinson.

He was educated in the Clinton City School System, graduated from Clinton High School in 1974, & furthered his education at Sampson Community College. He excelled in track & field & earned the nickname “Fleet”. He joined Red Hill Missionary Baptist Church at a young age. He was a master of many trades. He was an extremely dependable, dedicated, hard worker & was well known for the quality of work he performed & his work ethic. He often maintained multiple jobs and never complained about working because that’s what he loved to do. He loved to fish & spend time with his family & friends. He was the devoted caretaker of the Robinson Family cemetery. He was well known in the community.

Harry was preceded in death by his younger sister Mary Ann Robinson and his father Willie J. Robinson, Sr.

Harry leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Fennie M. Robinson of Clinton, NC; two daughters, Shalonda G. Robinson and Takeshia L. Draughon, both of Clinton, NC; one son, Derrick Thompson; one granddaughter, Zakaryia K. Draughon; three grandsons, Zeonta K. Mimms, Z’Elliott K. Draughon, and Alexander McLean, Jr., all of Clinton, NC; three brothers, Willie J. Robinson, Jr., Benny R. Robinson both of Clinton, NC and Tony L. Robinson (Christine) of Warsaw, NC; five sisters, Geneva Cunningham (Lawrence), Brenda F. Robinson, Penny K. Robinson and Eva M. Owens (Kirby) all of Clinton, NC, Rev. Sarah E. Hines (Beauchy “Ronnie”) of Roseboro, NC; and a special aunt, Lu Ellen Kirby of Clinton, NC; very special friends, Joyce Woods, Willie Gray Warren, Jay Pope, Joe Pope, Chick Gancer, and John Owens; and special friend, Iris Grice, all of Clinton, NC; and a host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.
