Obituary

Sheila Marie Wright was born October 21, 1955 to William and Nellie Wright in New York City.

As a youngster and teen, she showed great promise as a classical violinist and pianist, yet later in life her passion changed to the culinary arts where she excelled in cooking.

Sheila followed her heart and devoted her life to teaching children. God blessed her as an elementary school teacher and she touched many lives by her enthusiasm, words and deeds.

While at P.S. 208, where she worked for several years, she acted for a while as a cheerleading coach. This brought much joy to her life and to the lives of her students.

Declining health forced the Board of Education to retire Sheila at the end of 2009. After a hearty bout with various illnesses, God took her home, to heaven.

She leaves a sister, Valerie Wright of NYC; a cousin, Deborah Smith of the Bronx, NY; cousins, friends, neighbors and acquaintances.

Her love, generosity, spirited words and passion for life will be missed but never forgotten. We love you Sheila. Rest in peace!

The Chain Will Link Again

*Little did we know that morning,
God was going to call your name.*

*In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone.*

*For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.*

your love is still our guide.*

*And although we cannot see you,
you are always by our side.*

Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same.

*But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.*
