Reflections of Our Beloved

Myrtle J. Hughes

Myrtle Hughes was born to Joshua Payton Pender and the late Margaret Virginia Hughes-Dyess, April 23, 1941 in Braddock, Pennsylvania. Myrtle was called home to be with the Lord Saturday, June 2, 2012. “And we know all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose. I say the truth in Christ I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost.” Romans 8:28 & 9:1

Myrtle moved to Mobile, Alabama with her mother where she was raised and attended school. She moved to New York City in 1964 for better opportunities for her and her children, where she worked in the garment district for a number of years as well as the bank.

Myrtle accepted Christ in her life as a child, she was always heavily involved in the up building of God’s Kingdom. She was well known as the “Cake Lady”. She joined Tiberian Baptist Church back in the nineties. She was a member of the Choir and Choir President.

Myrtle Hughes also known to family and friends as “Tiny” or “Momma Hughes”, she was a mother, sister, aunt, grandmother, and friend but most of all she was a child of God. She was always willing to help who ever she could.

One son, Kenneth Hughes, preceded her in death.

Myrtle leaves to cherish her fond memories: six living children, Reneicea L. Hughes, Keith Hughes, Kelvin Pender, Jackqline Hughes-Davis, Christopher Pender and Jessella Wilson; seven grandchildren, Reneicea C. Hughes, Kelvin M. Pender, Keith Pender, Jackques Davis, Dashaun West, Carlos Davis Jr. and Xavier Mohammed; six siblings, Joshua Pender, Gloria Hughes, Jackqline Gibbs, George Dyess, Phyllis Vatson and Elddora Dyess; and a host of nieces, Monica Hughes and many more nephews, relatives, and friends.

To Those I Love

*To those I love and those that love me,
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone
So grieve for a while for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."*
