Reflections of Life

Sarah Elizabeth White was born September 2, 1956 in Milford, DE, and resided in Paterson, NJ for many years.

She was the daughter of Willow Mae White-Church and James White. She was a fun loving person who loves to smile and dance. Her favorite name was Sarah Lee because she always thought she was sweet as the cake. She also was given the famous name “dumpling” because she loved dumplings when she was young.

She was employed at Paterson Shade Company and Haband Company between the 1970’s and 1990’s.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Willow Mae White-Church, father, James White, sisters, Jessie Mae Drummen and Elisa White, brother, William White.

She departed this life on Monday June 11, 2012 around 4:30 a.m. She lived a remarkable life.

She leaves to cherish fond memories: her sisters, Lucille White, of New Jersey and Charlotte Church, of Delaware; brothers, Earl White, Ricky White and Harry Church; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

FOREVER AND ALWAYS

Why are you crying? Do you think I’m gone?

I have not left you, I am where I belong

Anytime you are lonely, anytime you are sad,

Anytime you heart breaks, anytime you are sad,

All you have to do is close your eyes and I will be there with you.

You see the world may take my body, but that’s all it can do.

When Jesus died upon the cross, he took away our sins.

He conquered death so we can live in heaven where life begins.

Don’t stop the memory of time shared.

It’s God’s way to help you through,

Take time to laugh when life gets hard, the way we used to do!

A smell? A touch? The morning sun? They all will help you see.

Live each day, keep looking up, my life is not in vain,

I finished the task I was born to do, that’s why I couldn’t remain.

Until I see you. I love you forever and always!
