Reflections of Life

Angelean Thomas, “Ann” as she was known to many who knew her, was born on May 23, 1950 in Bronx, New York to the late Willie and Mary Anderson. Ann was one of five children, one of which was her twin sister. Ann answered God’s call and entered into eternal rest on June 9, 2012.

Ann received her education from the New York City public school system as she attended Junior High School 22 in Bronx, New York and went on to graduate from William Howard Taft High School also in Bronx, New York.

As a child, Ann was raised in Epworth United Methodist Church where she sang in the choir. Ann went on to become an Administrative Assistant for the City of New York. In the late nineties she joined Union Baptist along with her husband, Kenneth Thomas of Bronx, New York.

Ann was a well-known figure in the neighborhood and was such a joy to be around as she embraced all that she came in contact. Ann had a love for old school music, playing pokeno, cooking her infamous macaroni and cheese and collard greens, but above all she enjoyed spending time with her family. Ann touched the lives of many people and will always be remembered for her warmth and friendliness.

Preceding her in death, were her sisters, Thelma and Margelean (twin).

Ann leaves to cherish her memories and celebrate her life, her husband, Kenneth Thomas, Sr., Bronx, New York; a brother, Julius Anderson (Carmen), Tennessee; a sister, Inez Anderson, South Carolina; seven children, Daphne Cochran (Jackie), Jacqueline King (Jerome), Benjamin Thomas (Shakina), Randolph Wiggins (Lisa), Chiffon Mason (Angel), Nicole Thomas (Gary) and her baby boy Kenneth Thomas, Jr. (Alicia); fifteen grandchildren, James, Randolph III, Tyjanai, Taylor, Jaheim, Stephon, Rondell, Angel, Nahzir, Kenneth III, Sanaa, Amber, Ayanna, London, and Ziare; eight nephews, Troy, Shawn, Anthony, Harold, Julius, Derrick, Victor and Tyron; a host of other relatives and friends.

I Wanted You To Know.....
I Was Sitting Here In Heaven
And Having A Wonderful Day.
I Started Thinking About You
And All The Things I Didn't Get A Chance To Say.
I Don't Want You To Worry About Me
And Please Don't Shed Any Tears,
Because I Will Wait For You In Heaven,
If It Takes A Hundred Years.
Everything I Had On Earth
I Have In Heaven Too!
My First Day Here
My Body Became Brand New.
It Is Really Pretty Here
And I Love My New Home,
Although Your Heart Is Broken
Because My Body Is Gone.
My Love Will Always Be There
As You Go Along The Way,
Just Take A Peek Inside Your Heart
There Is Where I'll Stay.
Know That I Loved My Family
And All My Friends Too,
My Thoughts Will Be With Each Of You
Your Whole Life Through,
And Until We Meet Again Just Know I'll Always Love You...

Acknowledgement
