Reflections of Life

“To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted...”

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2

Mr. Eddie Earl Harris was born March 31, 1938 in Vanceboro, North Carolina to the late Oscar Harris and Clarissa Gaskins. Born into a family of eleven siblings, he was preceded in death by three siblings, Sudie Joyner, James Harris and Oscar Harris Jr.(1st Born) and one son, Eddie Harris Jr.

He moved to Harlem, New York City in 1950 where he spent his formative years. He worked many years in the garment district before he went to work for Coca Cola from where he recently retired. He was a member of Teamsters Union 812.

On Sunday morning, June 10, 2012, after enjoying seventy four years of a full life he passed away after suffering from years of pulmonary disease. “Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming in which all who are in graves will hear His voice and come forth – those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation.” John 5:28-29

Left to cherish his memories are his two devoted daughters Sabrina Harris and Latonia Harris of Saint Albans Queens, three loving grandchildren: Jasmine N. Woodson, Jaquan W. Woodson and Travis T. Hardison; eight sibling: Maggie Blanchard, Idell Chapman, Delores Maximo, Ruby Harris, Moses S. Harris, Mary Cannon, Lucille Grey, Oscar Harris Jr. and their spouses. He is also survived by many nieces and nephews as well as a host of friends who love him dearly.

Eddie was a solemn and private man whom loved life and his family. He will be especially remembered for his quick wit and positive outlook as he never complained even when he was ill; he always said I’m alright with a smile.

Daddy although we are adults with families of our own we will always in some ways be your little girls. The fond memories of you enjoying Sunday dinners, watching sports and “your programs”, playing basketball, hiding Christmas toys with mommy and laughing at our silly acts will never fade. We will always cherish the years you lived, laughed and loved us dearly.

Your Devoted Daughters, Sabrina & Latonia
