Obituary

William E. Pitts, also affectionately known as "Baby" by his family and "Willie P" and "The P Man" by his friends, was born on December 12, 1941 in Tampa, Florida. He was the middle child of Hattie and Elmer Pitts. His two brothers, Walter and Rufus predeceased him.

Willie P. grew up in Harlem and was educated in the NYC School System.

William worked in the Garment District as a Supervisor in the Shipping Department for many years. He enjoyed his job and worked constantly always trying to be on time and at work, never taking time off for himself. He also enjoyed talking about cars. He took pride in his accomplishments.

His real job was to make everyone he met laugh. William lived life to the fullest and in doing so he filled our lives with love and joy. He was always the life of the party. William could always be depended on for his uncommon wit, strength and common sense. William was greatly loved and will live forever in our hearts.

Later in life he met his lifelong companion Jackie Hines, who remained faithfully at his side throughout his illness. His kind and generous nature helped to create life time friendships with devoted friends that were there for him through his illness, especially Adrienne Knowles.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving cousins, Christine and Victor-Russell, Lizzie Sheppard of Bronx, NY, Peggie and Willis Montgomery of Cocoa Beach, Florida, Phyllis and Nikki Booker of Yonkers, NY; and a host of other relatives and dear friends, especially DeShawn Hines who he loved like a son.

Willie P. we will sincerely miss you.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an after glow of smiles when day is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways...

*Of happy times and laughing times
and bright sunny days...*

*I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun*

Of happy memories and I leave behind when day is done.
