Obituary

Annie Julia Jordan was born on May 22, 1937 in Davisboro, GA. To the late Farrie Bell Jordan and the late Milton Tucker.

Annie Julia who was affectionately called Grandma by all who knew her, attended Davisboro Academy in Davisboro, GA. In 1955, Annie moved to New York where she settled and raised her family.

Annie Julia worked as a Nurses Aide at St. Francis Hospital in Jersey City, NJ where she worked for thirty-eight years until her retirement in 1999.

Annie Julia was a member of Another Chance Baptist Church. In February of 1990 she became a member of The Supreme Grand Court of Daughters of Sphinx of North and South America (Order of The Eastern Star). She served both organizations Diligently until her illness.

After her retirement, Annie enjoyed watching T.V. primarily her soaps "In The Heat of The Night", "Walker Texas Rangers", wrestling and westerns.

Annie Julia who was known for her quick wit and take no prisoners attitude, loved to cook. In the early morning, you could find her cooking a big breakfast ready to feed whom ever stopped by. On Sunday and every holiday, people knew they could stop by and get a plate because "Grandma" was cooking. She was the mayor of 164 St. and 107 Ave.

Annie Julia will be greatly missed by all her big bright smile, her out spoken manor and her generous heart.

Stating that she loved her girls all of her girls, Annie Julia peacefully departed this life on June 12, 2012 at Long Island Jewish Hospital. She was seventy-five years old.

Annie Julia was preceded in death by her parents, Farrie Bell Jordan and Milton Tucker, two grandsons, Jamel and Kendell Jordan, one great grandson, Antoine Jordan, one brother and six sisters.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her six daughters, Diane Jordan, Brenda Jordan-Dawkins, Florence Jordan of Atlanta, GA, Annie Seal Jordan of Far Rockaway, NY, Audrey Jordan and Kimberly Jordan of Queens, NY; one son-in-law, Lewis Dawkins of Queens, NY; two brothers, James Jordan of Raleigh, NC and George Tucker of Sandersville, GA; one sister, Mary Gilmore of Mariette, GA; two sisters-in-law, Irene Jordan of Raleigh NC and Dorthy Tucker of Sandersville, GA; one sister in Christ, Zelma Toni Stanley; one special cousin, Joe Duggin; thirteen grandchildren; twenty-three great grandchildren; one great great grandson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and one very best friend, Daisy Bradshaw Jones.

Interment

Springfield Cemetery
Springfield Gardens, New York

They love your smile
Your laugh even your choice of words

You told stories
You taught lessons
Both new and old

You are the grandmother
That everyone loved
Even if you wasn't their own
You are the family back bone
Our heart and soul

God wanted his child home
And at first we all thought He
Was wrong

But when He called for his child
It was time to let go

You gave birth to six girls
But was a mother to the world

Grandma remember you will always
Be our special girl

Now fly high in the sky
Tell the others I said hi

You will truly be missed but I
Understand God wanted his angel
Back by his side

R.I.P Annie Jordan
I Love You
