The Last Request

*Please don't say that I gave up
Just say that I gave in;
Don't say I lose or win.
Please don't say how good I was,
But say I did my best
Just say I tried to do what's right,
To give the most I could, no less.
Please don't give any rewards,
That's for God to do,
I want no more than I deserve
No extras, just my due.
Please don't give flowers
Or talk in real hushed tones
Don't be concerned with me now,
I'm well with God and I've made it home.
Don't talk about what could have been
It's over and it's done
Just see to all my family needs
Especially my little one
When you draw a picture for me*

*Don't draw me as a saint;
I've done some good
And I have done some wrong
So use all of your paint.
Not just the bright and light tones
Use some gray and dark
In fact, don't put me down on canvas
Paint me in your heart
Just remember the good times
And forget all the bad
For life is full of many things
Some happy and some sad.
But if you must do something
Then I have but one request
Forgive me for all the wrongs I've done
And with the love that's left
Thank God for my soul's resting
Thank God for I've been blessed
Thank God for all who loved me
Praise God who loved me best.*
