Obsequies

Yasmeen Lashamir Sutton was born on May 15, 1987 in Newark New Jersey to Yusef Ali Muhammad and Deborah Denise Sutton. Yaz as she was affectionately known grew up in East Orange New Jersey. She had a love for poetry, reading and dancing. Her passion for dance had led her to be a faithful member of a drill team and cheerleading squad.

Yaz attended the East Orange public schools and graduated from East Orange Campus High School. She continued her studies at Union County College majoring in criminal justice and graduated on May 25, 2011. Yaz was awarded a scholarship and matriculated at Seton Hall University for her masters and jurisprudence, studying Law. Her studious attitude kept her on the Dean's list; she was very big on getting her education completed. Yaz was destined to become one of the best African American female lawyers in the world!!!

Yaz was employed with Jewish Service for the Developmentally Disabled in West Orange, New Jersey as a Certified Mental Health Specialist. She had a very nice personality and a warm welcoming smile Yaz was just simply a lady with lots of class.

Tragically on Wednesday, June 20, 2012, God needed a shining flawless star so he sent an angel to suddenly bring Yasmeen Lasahmir Sutton home so she could complete the mission. She was preceded in death by her grandparents, Ophelia and Willie Thomas and Abdul Hakem Muhammed; uncles, Shifuddin, and Abdul Muhammed.

Yaz leaves to mourn: her mother, Deborah Sutton; her step father Clifford Conte; two brothers, Andre Ali Sutton and Yusef Thornton; one sister Sherrie Thornton; two nephews, Shahaad Sutton and Quayon Thornton; grandmother, Carol Moore; God father Cedric Clark, and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, and a plethora of friends.

Your Gentle Face And Patient Smile

*Your gentle face and patient smile,
With sadness we recall,
You had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
The voice is mute and stilled the heart
That loved us well and true,
Ah, bitter was the trial to part
From one so good as you.
You are not forgotten loved one
Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by, we miss you more,
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can take your vacant place.*
