Obituary

Ann Keyes Oliver was born on June 11, 1923 to the late Leonard and Mary Keyes in Abbeville, Alabama. She was the third oldest of seven children.

At an early age, her family relocated to New Jersey where Ann was educated in the Orange Public School system.

Later, she met and married James Leon Oliver and to this union four children were born; Robert, Shirley, James and Ruth.

Ann worked as a nurse's aide at the St. Mary's Hospital in Orange for many years. In her quest to further her education, she enrolled in school and graduated as a Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN). After all her children were educated she pursued her dream and became a Registered Nurse. She was employed at the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey until she retired.

Ann loved the Lord and was a devoted member of the Ebenezer Baptist Church for over sixty years. Her ministry service includes the Pastor's Aide, Nurse's, Voices of Ebenezer, the Acquaintance Ministry and the Missionary's.

She leaves to cherish her memory and carry on her legacy: two sons, Robert Oliver (Barbara) and Dr. James Oliver (Barbara); two daughters, Shirley Scott and Ruth Hall (Leon); a brother, Harvey Keyes (Shirley); a sister, Dorothy Brown; twelve grandchildren; seventeen great grandchildren; a God daughter, Denise Hopson-Allen; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

The Blue Eyed DIVA will be Sorely Missed.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
