Obituary

Cassandra Zoie Knights was born on Monday, June 4, 2012, at 9:38 p.m. to parents Troy and Leniece Knights at the Morgan Stanley Children's Hospital of New York. She weighed 3 pounds, 6 ounces and was 15 inches long.

Cassandra's family was blessed with almost a month and one week with Cassandra, before she went to her heavenly home on July 7, 2012 at 9:15 a.m. Cassandra experienced holding hands with her mommy and daddy, hugs and kisses from her family, listening as her mommy and daddy sang her songs, and being told "I love you" an uncountable amount of times.

Cassandra is deeply loved by her mommy and daddy, big brother Eric, her grandparents, her aunts and uncles, her cousins and many others. Cassandra will always remain her parents' precious baby and Eric's little sister, and they will hold her again in heaven one day.

Little Angels

When God calls little children to dwell with Him above.
We mortals sometimes question
the wisdom of His love.
for no heartache compares with the death of one small child, who does so much to make our world
seem wonderful and mild.
Perhaps God tires of calling the aged to His fold.
So He picks a rosebud
before it can grow old.

God knows how much we need them
and so He takes but few,
to make the land of Heaven
more beautiful to view.
Believing this is difficult still somehow we must try.
The saddest word mankind know will always be "Goodbye".
So when a child departs
we who are left behind, must realize God loves children,
Angels are hard to find.

Lullabies

Daddy please don't look so sad,

Mommy please don't cry.

I am in the arms of Jesus
and He sings me lullabies.

Please do not try to question God, don't think He is unkind.

Don't think He sent me to you and that He changed His mind.

You see, I am special and I'm needed up above.

I'm the special child you gave Him,
the product of your love.

I'll always be there with you.

So watch the sky at night.

Find the brightest star that's gleaming.

That's my halo's brilliant light.

So Daddy please don't look so sad.

Mommy please don't cry.

I am in the arms of Jesus.

And He sings me lullabies.
