Life Reflections

Margaret Ann Johnson was born on June 7th 1946 in Duplin, North Carolina to the late Newberry and Margaret Malie West. She grew up and attended the local schools in Duplin.

She moved to New Jersey in 1979 and became an active member of White Rock Baptist Church in Linden, New Jersey where she sang in the choir. She was a member of the Ruth Grand Chapter Order of the Eastern Star Bathsheba Chapter of Newark, NJ.

Mrs. Johnson was called “Granny” by everyone, even her kids. She loved to help and feed everyone. The only thing she would say is “Save Chubby and James a plate.” She was always looking out for them.

Granny worked in the Roselle School System as a Lunch Aide at Dr. Charles C. Polk Elementary School (formerly Lincoln School) for five years. She also attended to and worked with special needs children on the school bus.

Granny loved her Gospel music and R & B music, especially Johnny Taylor and Otis Redding and she loved to dance with Chubby.

On July 10th 2012, Margaret Ann Johnson was called home to be with the Lord.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her children, Lori West, Darlene Hall and her husband, Sheldon, Felicia Johnson and her husband, Trent, Walter Johnson and his wife, Cynthia, Eugene Johnson, Christine Johnson and her husband, Kenneth, James Johnson and his wife, Keisha and Jimmy McCloud and his wife, Kamika; one brother; Jessie West and his wife, Brenda; one sister, Jannie Myers; sixteen grandchildren, nine great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Away from earth’s worries
Away from all cares
Our mother is sleeping
Beyond the sun’s glare.
Her life’s work is finished
So why should we weep?
In god’s wonderful garden
She has fallen asleep.

Lovingly and Sorrowfully,
The Family

Her Journey Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away
Her journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets
This earth is only one.
Just think of her resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.
Think how she must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away
And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And she was loved so much.*
