Obituary

Rubin Terry Jetter, son of the late Lou and Grace Jetter was born on April 18, 1947 in Union, South Carolina and departed on July 12, 2012.

Terry as everyone called him, grew up with his four brothers and sister in Brooklyn, New York. Terry served our country in the Vietnam War as a Marine. Terry was a Corporal in the Marines and received the Purple Heart. He was always proud to be a Marine.

Terry retired after thirty years of service as a Correctional Officer. Terry loved his family and was always there when you needed him.

His brothers, Sabu and Junior predeceased him. He leaves to cherish his memories, his son, Terry Jr.; daughter, Jackie; his grandson and granddaughter; his brothers, Stanely and Barry; his sister, Judy and his brother-in-law, Alphonso; along with many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
