Reflections of Life

Robert Lee Moore was born September 12, 1946 in Huntsville, Alabama and eventually migrated to New York.

He graduated from Taft High School; afterwards he was inducted into the United States Army in 1966 and served in Vietnam. He was honorably discharged in 1968.

Robert enjoyed playing cards with his friends and watching sports.

He will be surely missed he leaves to cherish his memories; his beloved Dorothy D. Williams; and a host of other relatives and many friends.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
