“To Those I Love And Those Who Love Me”

*When I am gone, release me, let me go,
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears, But be thankful we had so many good years.*

I gave you my love, and you can only guess how much you've given me in happiness.

*I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled alone.*

*So grieve for me a while, if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust
That it is only for a while that we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.*

*I won't be far away for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear*

All my love around you soft and clear And then, when you come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and a “Welcome Home”.

Obituary

The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want
Psalm 23:1

Andre Giordani was born on June 16, 1927 in Port-Au-Prince, Haiti. He was the only child of the late Oreste and Louise Giordani. He departed this life, while at home, on Monday, July 16, 2012 after a long struggle of illness. He was educated in the school systems in Port-Au-Prince and also attended a Catholic church faithfully.

Andre was employed as a machine operator at the Hillside Metal and Amax, where he worked for over thirty-five years before retiring. He was also a long time member of the Mason organization.

Andre enjoyed watching three televisions at the same time, because he felt that he would miss something from his many favorite television shows. He would keep the televisions on for twenty-four hours a day. He had a special saying whenever he spoke to his mother-in-law greeting her by saying "how are you doing Miss?"

He leaves to cherish his fond memory: his wife, Mrs. Deborah Thomas-Giordani; three sons; Sonny Giordani (Margaret), of Newark, NJ, Darrell Thomas of Florida, and Andretti Giordani (Latoya) of Newark, NJ; a mother-in-law, Frances Thomas of Newark, NJ, two brothers-in-law, Willie J. Thomas (Maryann) of Plainfield, NJ, and James H. Thomas; two sisters-in-law, Denise Thomas-Cowie (Devon) of Yorktown, VA and Yvette Thomas of Newark, NJ; five grandchildren, Tamara, Rashon, Erick, Dominique and Destiny; two beloved cousins, Roger Giordani and Sernande Stephen; and a host of other relatives and friends.

His daughter Magalie Giordani - Baptiste preceded him in death. His sister-in-law, Denise really did love and adore Andre. He was well aware of her affection for him and nicknamed her "Den".

Andre was well loved by family and friends and will truly be missed from this earth.
