Obituary

Martha Withers Wilson was born on May 6, 1952 in Newark, New Jersey to the late Herbert and Annie Ruth Withers. Martha departed the life on Tuesday, July 17, 2012 at Rex Medical Center, Raleigh, NC after a brief illness.

Martha was educated in the Orange, New Jersey School system. She later met and married Charlie B. Wilson. If you knew Martha you would know she was a devoted wife who loved her husband and took excellent care of him.

Cleaning was her passion; she was owner and operator of “Clean as a Whistle” cleaning company and took pride in all she did.

In 2002, Martha moved from New Jersey to Hubert, NC, then to Knightdale, NC. After moving to Knightdale, she became a member of Agape Christian Center in Knightdale, where Elder Braxton Bowser serves as Pastor. Martha served delightfully on the usher board.

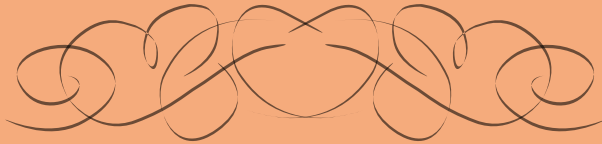

Martha was the life of any setting. She loved people and would not leave without giving a hug and kiss. She would go and greet anyone and as her sisters would say, “she would talk to a rock”.

Martha was preceded in death by two sisters, Denise Gray and Peggene Barnes.

Martha leaves to mourn: her husband, Charlie B. Wilson; four sisters, Barbara Baskerville (Michael), Cheryl Withers and Toni Withers all of Knightdale, NC and Donna Withers of Orange, NJ; two brothers, Ronald Silas of East Orange, NJ and Raymond Withers of Linden, NJ; a devoted sister-in-law, Coranell Davis; two goddaughters, Claudette Henry of Irvington, NJ and Dorian Walls of Irvington, NJ; one god son, Brandon Cureto of NC; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

*Like a butterfly you have flown away,
To be in God's presence where you'll want to stay.
You will be missed by all those who knew you,
But in His presence, like the butterfly, is beauty*
