When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see...
If the sun should rise and find your
Eyes, filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
The way you did today...
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you...
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me, too.
If I could relive yesterday
I thought for just a while...
I'd say goodbye and kiss you
And maybe see you smile,
But then I fully realized
That this could never be...
For emptiness and memories
Would take the place of me.
So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart...
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.*

The Obituary

MRS. BETTY B. MITCHELL, daughter of the late Kennie and Leacy Lynch, was born April 28, 1933 in Nash County, North Carolina. She departed this life on July 21, 2012 at the Forest Hill Health Care Center of Newark, New Jersey.

BETTY joined Pine Chapel Baptist Church in Hollister, North Carolina at an early age. She was joined in matrimony to the late Walter Mitchell on June 30, 1952. After relocating to New Jersey, she and Walter worked diligently as members of Congregational Baptist Church of Newark, New Jersey. BETTY served as a Deaconess and sang in the choir.

BETTY was employed for many years at the Westinghouse Corporation of Bloomfield, New Jersey and later worked for the Beecham Company of Clifton, New Jersey where she retired.

She was preceded in death by her loving sisters, Dorothy Mitchell of Newark, New Jersey and Doretha Cornell of Rocky Mount, North Carolina.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her sisters, Lela Mae Parr of Newark, New Jersey and Frances Jones (Alton) of Rocky Mount, North Carolina; an aunt, Elizabeth Lancaster of Nashville, North Carolina; a niece, Bettie Majette (Edward) of Newark, New Jersey; in addition to several other nieces, nephews, and many relatives and friends.
