

Miss Me But, Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Martin S. Sindab of Irvington, NJ slept away on Sunday, July 22, 2012 at Newark Beth Isreal Medical Center in Newark, NJ. He was born on January 11, 1945 in Pawley’s Island, SC to the late Janie and Arthur Smalls.

He attended and graduated from Georgetown High School, SC. He later moved to Newark, NJ in 1971. He met and married Earnestine Sindab in May of 1985. He was employed by Supermarket General in Woodbridge, NJ and retired after thirty-three years of service in 2004.

He joined Green Pasture Missionary Baptist Church and loved attending the 8:00 a.m. worship service until his health prevented him from doing so. Most of all his pride and joy was his only granddaughter Aaliyah.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Earnestine Sindab; his only son, Martin Cedric Sindab; one granddaughter, Aaliyah Sindab; four sisters, Jacqueline (Eugene) Lewis; Prestine (Rick) Pyatt all of Pawley’s, Island, SC; Debroa (Wardell) NO. ChesterField, Va; Lavelle (Eugene) Hunter of Byron, Ga, Cedric’s fiance, Donella Malone; five sisters-in-law, five brothers-in-law, a host of nieces, nephews, relative and friends.
