

"I'm Free"

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*

Obituary

Roslyn Turner Green was born on May 12, 1953 in New York City to Ruby Turner and the late James D. Turner.

Roslyn received her education in the local New York City School System. Roslyn attended Harriet Tubman P.S. 154, Wadeliagh Junior High School and Benjamin Franklin High School.

Roslyn was a kind, generous and loving woman who was full of life, hope and joy. She loved her family, her husband Al, her children, grandchildren, her mother, her brother, and the many extended family members and friends to whom she gave so much of herself. It was Roslyn's giving spirit that earned her the title of the neighborhood mom aka "Mama Roslyn". She always had something going on for her children and their friends whether it was a party, sleepovers or taking everyone to the Apollo for Amateur Night. When the Jenkins sisters lost their mother her response was "Don't worry I will be your adopted mother" that she became.

Roslyn's doors were always open and she always made a way to feed all who found themselves in her home. Her love for cooking and spending time with family and friends lead to "Roslyn's Annual 4th of July Cookouts". When she was not cooking she was singing and dancing to her oldies but goodies. Traveling and weekends in Atlantic City with family and friends was a must. Mama Roslyn had a great abundance of love for any and everyone.

On Monday, July 28, 2012, Roslyn Turner Green was beckoned to eternal rest where trouble ceased to exist. She was predeceased by her father, James D. Turner, her brother, Rico Turner and her husband, Alfred Green.

In the wake of her departure, Roslyn leaves a loving family to cherish her memory: her mother Ruby Turner, her brother, Jerome Turner; her sisters, Kim, Sonia, Linda, Yvette, Felicity and Telesia; her daughters, Latisha, Lisa, Tyasha; sons-in-law, Luis Sr., Kenneth Sr., Kendal Sr. and Melvin (Man). stepchildren, Dennis, Dwight, Maurice, Dena, Marlon and Joy; nieces, Chakia and Shaniqua Roslyn; nephew, Jamir; great niece, Mahogani; grandchildren, Kendal, Jazzmine, Princess, Kenneth Jr, Jaylin, Treshawn, Raeshawn, Luis Jr. and Porsha; great-grandchild, NaVaeh; and a host of other family and dear friends.
