Obituary

Ruby Muriel Davis was born on March 16, 1925 to George and Gladys Herbert in Harlem, New York. She was one of four siblings, three whom preceded her in death.

Ruby attended Public School and Whyadley High School where she and her sister, Gloria made many lasting friendships.

Ruby married William Elfe and out of this union was born Marcia Elfe. Both husband and daughter preceded her in death.

Ruby remarried on July 30, 1968 to William Spencer Davis, who also preceded her in death.

Ruby was employed by the Department of Veterans Administration and other government agencies. She was also a personal assistant for the great actress Ruby Dee. She was also the “Avon Lady” in her neighborhood.

Ruby loved to play poker and have fun. She loved listening to Ella Fitzgerald, Sarah Vaughn and Johnny Mathis and all the great singers of her time. Ruby was the family “Orator” she had many stories to tell.

Ruby was devoted mother and grandmother, a loving aunt and loving friend to many. She leaves behind her granddaughter, Chirru Elfe and many nieces and nephews and friends.

Grandma I will miss you.

Aunt Ruby we will miss you.

*Gone to be at rest
Gone to be with the very best
Free from the trouble
Free from pain
Gone never to suffer again
Trails are all past
They are home at last
Resting in God's hand*
