Obituary

Joshua Diallo Jones was born August 13, 1989 to the late Donald Majette and Raquel L. Jones. Joshua was educated in the Englewood Public School System.

Joshua was a great athletic master in football for Englewood with the Maroon Raiders and a league in Yonkers, NY. He couldn't keep a ball still in his hands when it came to basketball, often seeing him playing in Mackay Park.

He was humorous, outgoing and ambitious, always lending a helping hand to family and friends, overwhelmingly very protective of his cousin, Zayla Jackson. He loved homemade cooking, movies and traveling.

Joshua was taken from us too soon, though until we meet again he will always be remembered and loved, noting his favorite song "I Believe I Can Fly" R. Kelly.

He leaves to cherish his memory: devoted brothers, Joseph Dia and Michael; sister, Maquel; loving grandmother, Janice Jackson-Stroud (mom); grandfather, Vance Stroud (dad); special aunts, JoAnn Jackson-Currie and Joyce Jackson-Dean; uncles, Carl Johnson, Joseph Jackson, Jr. and Robert Jackson; dear cousins, Simone, Zayla and Gianni Jackson. Joshua's beloved dog, Biggavel.

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years
But start out bravely with a gallant smile
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour in useful ways
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near
And never, never be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*
