Reflections of Life

Norman Winston George Goulbourne was born in Jamaica, West Indies on the 18th of April 1955.

As a baby he was the most fun loving and adorable baby. He loved to play and laugh. As a growing child his mother usually dressed him in sailor Suits with the cap to match. Oh! He looked so cute.

In 1963, his mother migrated to the United States. During that time his grandmother took care of him. She made sure he attended every church function, including Sunday school and Young Peoples Meeting.

In 1973, he joined his mother in the United States. He did extremely well in his junior years. He started slipping off the tracts, nothing big; not listening to his mother's advice. In 1973, he joined the Navy, he soon found out how restricted and disciplined you have to be. He stayed there a short time.

Norman has never left his mother until the end of her life ten months ago. His health started a downward turn when he had an accident at the job site he was working at. His health declined even further over the years.

Benjamin Franklin said value time, because it is the stuff life is made of Because life is such a valuable commodity it will take us pass the Big Ben of time management. Better time management will result in better life fulfillment. Procrastination is the thief of time.

Norman passed away into eternal sleep on the 8th of November 2012. Take your rest Norman, you have suffered enough.

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder why I so calmly Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade.*

*And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's Will.*

*There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth - You shall rest in Jesus' land.*

*When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home:
Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come!*
