Cephas Blake Reynolds, Jr. was born on December 11, 1958 in Newark, New Jersey. He was the first born of Cephas Blake Reynolds, Sr. and Dorothy Wincher.

Cephas Blake Reynolds, Jr. attended Newark Public Schools, then after that he began getting educated and taught by his father Cephas, Sr. in the construction and Brickman trades.

Cephas Blake Reynolds, Jr. was a devoted husband to Mary Ann Reynolds for 18 years.

Cephas Blake Reynolds Jr. was a devoted husband and father. He had two children while in a union with Robin Pritchett. He also had five children with Ms. Beverly Dixon, and one child by Ms. Anita Price.

Cephas Blake Reynolds, Jr. was a construction worker from the age of fourteen until he departed this life.

Cephas Blake Reynolds, Jr. will always be remembered as a well loved brother whom his three sisters adored unconditionally.

Cephas Blake Reynolds, Jr. leaves to celebrate his life and legacy: his wife, Mary Ann Reynolds; his three sisters, Ruby Margretta Reynolds, Deborah Reynolds and Charmaine Reynolds; his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Rubye and Earl Wade; his uncle, Lee Summers; and his uncle and aunt, Pa James and Ruby Reynolds; five sons, Cephas Blake Pritchett, Saladeen Dixon, Shadee Dixon, Markee Dixon and Rahson Dixon; four daughters, Joann Pritchett-Laguda and son-in-law, Ola Laguda, Shatora Dixon, Melissa Palumbo and Tamesha Price; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Cephas Blake Reynolds, Jr. was preceded in death by his mother, Dorothy Grier, father, Cephas Blake Reynolds, Sr. and a nephew, Naeem Reynolds.

*I was feeling so good, No worries to see.
Then that morning, Took you away from me.
I know you're still here,
Standing next to me.
Your warmth I feel all around me,
It's just your face I can not see.
Your up in the heavens,
So far away.
But you will always be in my thoughts,
Each and every day.
You taught me to love life,
And to see things thru.
But this is one of the hardest things,
I will ever do.
I have to let you go,
Although I don't want to.
I really have to do it,
God has bigger plans for you.
We will all miss you,
In many different ways.
But we will be together again,
In not so many days.
Now I must let you go,
I'll love you with all my heart.
God has big plans for you,
And this is how it starts.
Just walk right thru,
Those big pearly gates.
Where there is no evil,
No killings, no hates.
Release my hand,
But stay in my heart.
My LOVE for you,
Will never part.*

“Finally You’ve Made It”

*Finally you’ve made it...
All the pain and suffering is over
Long nights of helpless crying and praying for someone to lend a shoulder.
The Almighty felt your sorrow, so He granted you a better tomorrow.
The sky is open, the clouds are gone, the sun shines brighter.
With Him is where your soul belongs....
Finally, you’ve made it...
No more medication and lifeless sounds of machines beeping,
Everyday something else is new.
More bad news and doctors saying, “I’m sorry,
there’s nothing else I can do.”
Finally, you’ve made it...
You’re now in peace, something we must all understand
God opened the gates to His World.
Walk through gracefully, enter Paradise, His Promised Land.
Finally, you’ve made it...
Although you’re not here with us physically,
Your spirit is felt warming the room.
You’ll always be in our hearts
Always close, remember we are never apart.
Finally, you’ve made it...
Rest now, Cephas, with the angels
You, Mommy, Daddy and Naeem we’ll miss forever more,
Dear God, please accept him and open your heavenly door.
Finally, you’ve made it...*
