Reflections of Life

It is with heavy hearts and tears we mourn the passing of Jane Pryor who departed this life on Thursday, November 29, 2012. Jane was born on September 3, 1927 in West Virginia. She was the second of nine children of the late Vera-Ferguson Quintano.

Jane was married to the late Sylvester Pryor, from the union they were blessed with a daughter the late Frances Pryor. Jane unfortunately became a widow. But, found love again with the late Clifton Davis, from this union another blessing, a daughter, Melvina Davis-Gilkes.

Jane retired from Calvary Hospital in the Bronx after twenty-eight years of compassionate care to the sick. During her retirement Jane enjoyed playing her lottery, numbers, scratch offs, watching soap operas, and talking with friends and family, spoiling and dotting over her grandchildren, and great-niece and nephew Latasha and Luis.

Jane was always there to give her guidance and advice, if you wanted it or not. When you asked her how she was the answer was "No need to complain, it won't do any good anyway."

She spent her final days in the same hospital where she extended loving care for others, and in return, received back in abundance at Calvary Hospital.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory, daughter, Melvina; son-in-law, Derek; devoted brother, Donald Quintano; sister, Delores McCall; grandchildren, Donovan, and Dylan, Tatia, Natasha, Robert, Manuel: and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws and dear friends.

Rest In Peace Jane for the Lord has you now.

Don't Cry For Me

*Do not cry for me,
for I have lived my life to the extent of time which God has granted me.*

*Do not cry for me,
for I have walked a long way in my lifetime,
I have moved on to fulfill my destiny.*

*Do not cry for me, for I am not lost,
I am home where I am free.*

*When you think of my passing,
picture my face in your mind
and reminisce of the times that have passed be it good or bad;
Do not cry for me for I am with God,
and my life has just begun.*

Acknowledgement

*The family of Jane Pryor would like to thank everyone for their continued support given to the family.
May God bless each of you.*
