Obituary

Leslie Cameron was born in Jamaica, W.I. October 5, 1943 and was migrated to the United States at a young age.

He was the son of Agnes May Cameron who raised him in Harlem, New York. He served in the United States Army for twelve years after which he returned home and worked in many different positions for survival. His most recent job was at City College where he retired.

He lived a very humble life and although he was a very smart person he was most of the time reserved and had little to say. He spent most of his time working and was in and out of the hospital in recent years with different complications.

He will be missed by family and friends who knew him.

Be Not Afraid

*“Be not afraid” the Master said,
“I’m with you always,” so instead
Of shouldering my cross alone,
I place my burden on His own.
For I’m not nearly strong enough,
To make it when the going’s rough,
And it’s a comfort to believe
“You need but ask Me to receive”
Handed down to me through time,
These blessed words of hope,
and I’m Renewed in spirit to recall
“Am I not Father to you all?”
One day these feet shall cease to roam,
Earth’s but my temporary home
I was in truth for Heaven made,
And so I shall not be afraid.*
