Ursula Olivia Talbot (also known as Cousin Silla) was born in Mahaicony, ECD, Guyana on August 2, 1934 to Cyril and Charlotte Almira Nobrega (deceased).

At age seventeen, Ursula joined the Nursing Program at the Georgetown Public Hospital and graduated as a Registered Nurse.

Ursula was married to Kenrick John Talbot, Sr. for forty-one years. From this union produced four children: Maxine, Kenrick, Frank and Anita.

Ursula had a special love and dedication to her family. She had a few friends. However, she touched many lives in some way or another. She was caring, kindhearted, hardworking and generous.

On November 30, 2012, our beloved Ursula departed this life at Morristown Medical Center, New Jersey and will join in eternity her father Cyril, mother, Charlotte Elmira and sister, Marie Shipley.

Ursula was a great mother! She will be greatly missed because she was so well loved, admired and respected by her children, Maxine, Kenrick, Frank and Anita; daughter-in-law, Allyson Lynn Talbot; son-in-law, Cecil Muirhead; granddaughter, Kendra Talbot; her brothers, John, Walter, Reginald and Peter Nobrega; and her sister, Ovetta Stewart; sister-in-law, Hermina Nobrega and others; nieces, Christine Stewart, Roxanne and others; nephews, Lawrence and Leonard Stewart, Bryan, Roger, Dexter, Carl Jr, Mark and others; cousins, Elaine Nichols, Jilian Telford-Murray, Brenda Telford-Sarfo, Ralph and Hector Telford, Gravesande, George, Beaton, Jones, Da Silva, Moore, Nobregas, Hamilton and others, close friends, Ruby Haynes, Lurline Byas and several others.

Her life on this earth was well spent until she was diagnosed with Alzheimers disease which ended her life. But, we remain faithful that we will see her again on that great and glorious day. Until then, she is now in total peace resting with the Lord.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
